"Businesses are looking at it for employment, financial institutions are looking at it if you want to rent an apartment, or lease a car..if you want to open a checking or savings account those things are just the basics that people need in order to be able to work in our economic environment."

SONNY COLLEY IS THE PRESIDENT OF CONSUMER CREDIT COUNSELING.

HE SAYS INSURANCE COMPANIES ARE NOW USING CREDIT REPORTS.

Sonny Colley: "Insurance companies are looking at the fica score which is the score derived from the information on the credit report."

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOUR CREDIT REPORT LOOKS LIKE?

IF NOT, YOU MAY WANT TO GET YOURSELF A COPY.

THERE ARE THREE CREDIT REPORTING AGENCIES YOU CAN

EXPERIAN AT 888-EXPERIAN.

TRANS UNION AT 800-916-8800

OR EQUIFAX AT 800-685-1111

Sonny Colley: "One thing to think about...in the state of Georgia you can get two copies of your credit report free. We like to recommend everybody get a copy of their credit report every January and June, when you change your batteries in your smoke detector. We think it's very important."

ONCE YOU RECEIVE YOUR CREDIT REPORT, COLLEY SAYS TO MAKE SURE EVERYTHING CHECKS OUT.

IF NOT...YOU'VE GOT SOME WORK TO DO.

Sonny Colley: "If there's something on there that's not correct that they're very aggressive about getting it removed and getting it corrected. One thing to remember too, the fair credit reporting act which is the act that regulates the credit bureaus states that you can make a statement for a hundred words or less and explain any kind of financial difficulties you have it actually becomes part of your credit report.">
